Year of the Horse - 31 Jan 2014

Dear Friends,

The year is fast and flowing as we enter into the realm of the Horse. He is powerful yet gentle, fast yet slow, he moves with determination and grace. The Horse is also a powerful ally to man, working with you as friend and tool. He is gracious in his sharing with you and bonds deeply with those who share with him.

The Year of the Horse is therefore about bonding, building alliances, renewing friendships and healing deep-seated wounds. Let the gentleness of Horse guide your words and actions where care is needed; whilst allowing his power and speed to move you and give you courage.

Horse will bring healing to groups and organisations. And assist in seeing each others true value and worth. He will also take care of the wanderer and traveller who need support and company.

As Snake leaves and Horse arrives notice the shift in you. Notice your stance, hold your head up high and look forward. Let this graceful, enigmatic animal be your constant companion this year and witness your own healing.

Blessings

Chou
