

Sunday 26 January 2020

GROUP: Trance Development Group - BEG/INT - SOLD OUT

Whether you want to begin your journey with trance mediumship or have already started, join Sarah in this exciting new development group focused on trance mediumship and its many levels. Numbers in our development group are limited to eight people, so that Sarah can give each student the attention needed to really provide the highest quality of trance mediumship training and guidance.

This group is designed for beginners and intermediate level of trance mediumship.

Students will be encouraged to develop at their own pace, while being supported in understanding the nuances of being a trance medium. The sessions will focus on preparation, deepening the connection, entering an altered state, building trust with spirit and allowing the communication to flow.

The group will meet monthly (three meetings per term): One Sunday a month.

Sarah will contact you when you purchase this event, for a telephone interview. This is to ensure that you are ready in your development, for this group. A full refund will be given if Sarah feels the group is not right for you.
